Welcome to Regent’s University London

Regent’s is London’s only independent, not-for-profit university, with a highly cosmopolitan community, based in royal Regent’s Park.

Set in the heart of the UK’s vibrant capital, Regent’s is a superb place in which to live and study, just minutes away from all that this world-class city has to offer.

We offer a range of programmes at foundation, undergraduate and postgraduate level, along with language and professional short courses.

Visit our beautiful central London campus and find out what Regent’s can offer you.

An inspiring environment and an enterprising education that develops distinctive individuals – alumni who are independent thinkers, prepared to make their mark in the globalised world.
At Regent’s, London is both your classroom and your playground. Whatever you plan to study, you will find that the city’s culture, heritage and commerce form an essential part of your student experience.

Excellent transport links make it easy to get around. You will be within easy reach of all that this exciting European city has to offer.

Visit galleries and museums.

Easy access to the City of London.

Close to major sports venues.
London is the most amazing city. It has something for everyone. I always say that London actually consists of hundreds of little cities because each district is so distinct and special that taking a corner and walking from one street into the next almost feels like travelling to a new country – that way, you won’t ever get bored.

Nina Althammer, Austria
Cosmopolitan campus

At Regent’s you will be a part of one of the most cosmopolitan educational communities in the United Kingdom.

With classmates from all corners of the world, you will make international friends, learn about other cultures and build a global network of contacts for the future.

Mixing with around 3,700 other students on campus, at Regent’s you will never be just another face in the crowd.

All students automatically become members of the Student Union, which is your voice at the University. The Union represents student interests at all levels of decision-making, as well as providing services and activities to enhance student life. Clubs and societies vary from year to year, encompassing everything from photography to debating, music and human rights. Events on campus include high-profile speakers from business and industry, plus regular social events such as St. Patrick’s Day and the Grand Ball.
11 acres of private garden.

The Regent's campus is located in the beautiful, peaceful surroundings of a royal park.

137 student nationalities on campus
22% from the UK
30% from the EU/EAA
48% from the rest of the world

I love being part of an international melting pot. At Regent's, you don't feel alone being a 'foreign' student. You feel part of something bigger. It has given me the opportunity to socialise with people from across the world and learn new traditions, customs and languages.

We want you to get the most out of every moment as a student at Regent’s. You’ll find plenty of opportunity to have fun and get involved.

At Regent’s, there is always something going on. You will have social activities and events to choose from throughout the year, from the Grand Autumn Party to barbecues, club nights and theatre trips.

Broaden your horizons with the range of trips on offer, such as London tours, weekends in Paris or Amsterdam, or a Wales Adventure Weekend (pictured below).
Enjoy a lively social life, with weekly Student Union events in the Bedford Bar.

Regent’s Be Active fitness programme offers yoga, zumba and boxfit classes.

Our sports teams include football, basketball, volleyball and polo.

With coffee shops, restaurants and bars on campus, you will find plenty of choice for food and drink and places to meet your friends.

At Regent’s, we are like a small family from different countries and cultures. It’s a really good networking experience and you never know – in business or in life – when you need this support.

Aspire

If you’re brave enough to discover yourself, you should come to Regent’s. It’s going to push you so far that by the time you graduate, you’ll be able to achieve more than you can possibly imagine.

The Regent’s community is a family – one whose bonds transcend borders. Such a rich and eclectic mix of nationalities brings dynamism and positive energy to the campus.

Kateryna Kononenko
Ukraine
BA (Hons) Film, TV & Digital Media

Since starting her degree at Regent’s, Kateryna has worked hard to break into the industry before even graduating. Alongside her university work, she has worked as a runner on the McQueen film, undertaken a commercial advertising internship and even won an international student TV competition hosted in Cannes. For Kateryna, Regent’s has given her the creative freedom and industry experience to develop both as a filmmaker and as a businesswoman.

Karim Henide
UK
BA (Hons) Global Management (Finance)

Karim was vice president of the Student Union in his final year of study. He has enjoyed meeting people from many different backgrounds at Regent’s, which he believes has broadened his horizons and enriched him both socially and culturally. He has particularly enjoyed the emphasis on entrepreneurialism during his studies, and the exposure to real business practice. He has also made the most of opportunities to engage in academic debate and network with visiting experts in the field of finance.

Personal ambition, a beautiful location and the opportunities afforded by studying in a world-class city are the reasons that our students are drawn to Regent’s.

Studying fashion in London, one of the fashion capitals of the world, has been an amazing experience. You have access to literally anything, it’s always exciting and inspiring looking at what people wear around the city.

At Regent’s, you’re taught by the most inspiring and passionate tutors. They motivate you to challenge yourself every day and know how to bring out your unique creativity and make it shine.

Ka Wai Lam (Basil)
Chinese Hong Kong
BA (Hons) Fashion Design

Basil has always loved making clothes and being able to see his own designs being worn. His recent graduate collection, entitled Melancholy for Lost Youth, was awarded the Industry Design Award in the 2019 Regent’s Graduate Fashion Show. Studying fashion at Regent’s has developed his creativity and taught him to be more open-minded with designs and styles. For Basil, it has been the tutors that have inspired him and helped shape him to become a great designer.

Mia Tsujimura Hjaere
Japan/ Denmark
BA (Hons) Interior Design

From a young age, Mia has been interested in interior design and the way in which it affects its users. She enrolled on the interior design foundation programme to develop the skills she needed to progress to the degree level programme. Studying at Regent’s has sparked Mia’s creativity, and helped her to develop vital design knowledge and computer skills. She also gained some great practical experience including a summer internship at a Japanese architectural studio and hopes to open her own agency in the future.

A period of study abroad forms a core part of many of our degree programmes.

Regent’s offers one of the widest choices of study abroad locations among UK institutions, giving our students unrivalled access to exceptional partner institutions around the world.

regents.ac.uk/study-abroad

Studying abroad at Regent’s was life-changing. It gave me the opportunity to immerse myself in a new culture while expanding my education, not just in a classroom but throughout London as well.

Caitlin McMorrow, College of St Scolastica, USA
International experience is an increasingly important part of higher education. Spending part of your degree at university in another country is a great way to expand your horizons, both academically and personally.

Regent’s is a meeting place for people from across the globe, and we are a popular destination for many students visiting from other universities.

You can join us for one or two terms (autumn and spring) or for an intensive summer programme (see page 29).

1. All students take an English for Academic Purposes (EAP) module in the first term to support the development of academic work in English. Students who enter with an IELTS score of 5.5 (minimum score of 5.5 in each component), or equivalent, are exempt from the EAP module and take an additional academic module instead.
2. Fees may vary for the January intake. Please see the website for more details.

I came to Regent’s as I thought it would be best to join a diverse university in London with people from all over the world and teachers who will teach you accurate English. My experience was even better than I imagined.

Hamid Karim Damani, Brazil and Paraguay

Accredited by the MEMBER

BRITISH COUNCIL

for the teaching of English in the UK

REGENTS.AC.UK/ELC

In addition to your regular studies during your time at Regent’s, you can choose to build your language skills with evening classes in nine economically important languages:

- Arabic
- Italian
- Portuguese
- French
- Japanese
- Russian
- German
- Mandarin Chinese
- Spanish

Summer Residential English Language Programme

2, 3, 4, 5 and 6 week courses

Learn English, discover London and make international friends. The Summer Residential English Language Programme at Regent’s offers you the opportunity to take part in all kinds of learning, both in the classroom and the city beyond.

There’s no better place to study the world’s global language than at the heart of a city like London. Together with students from around the world, you’ll take part in engaging and interactive classes (accredited by the British Council) with highly qualified teachers.

Morning classes allow plenty of time for exciting cultural and social activities in the afternoons, early evenings and weekends. By the end of your summer with us, you’ll have improved your English skills, discovered London and made a global network of friends.

The programme includes return airport transfer, accommodation and meals, teaching, activities and trips. For details of the summer 2020 programme, please see our website.

For details of the summer 2020 programme, please see our website.

Employability

Future opportunities

At Regent’s you will develop as a global citizen, equipped with the essential skills and experience for an exciting and rewarding career in your chosen field.

The cosmopolitan community and industry-focused teaching will help you to become internationally aware, innovative and employable.

You will have diverse opportunities to develop your skills, both inside and outside the classroom, and to undertake internships and work experience.

Our careers advisers will support you all the way with the advice you need to secure your career goals and increase your employability.

Our graduates go on to build successful international careers in many industries as well as starting their own companies, or returning to ensure the continuing success of family businesses.

Regent’s graduates are highly entrepreneurial. About one-third are self-employed or running their own businesses six months after graduation. You can find support for your own ideas and ambitions at The Hive, a brand new space on campus dedicated to student start-ups and entrepreneurship.

Start-up Visa Scheme

Entrepreneurship is a strong theme at Regent’s, and many of our alumni go on to start their own business.

We are able to endorse visas for graduate entrepreneurs, helping you remain in the UK after graduation to work on your big idea.

Our business developers will work alongside you to develop your business proposal and turn your start-up dreams into reality.

Meryem is the founder of HAYANI Ltd., which sells culinary Argan oil ethically sourced from a UNESCO-protected Moroccan terroir. Raising awareness of this rare, nutritious oil, HAYANI Ltd. pays homage to the Moroccan ‘Argan women artisans’ who for centuries have played a key role in the production of this precious oil. Her postgraduate studies at Regent’s gave her the confidence to launch her business, which has been 10 years in the making.

‘Regent’s enabled me to develop all the skills needed to become a catalyst for change, in both business and society, and prove that young Arab women are capable of bringing a positive difference.’
Entrepreneur Neku Atawodi has a number of impressive accolades to her name. She was the world’s first black female professional polo player, and – having founded a hotel, crowdfunding platform and non-profit organisation – was named as one of Forbes’ Africa’s 30 most promising entrepreneurs under 30. Her crowdfunding platform, Malaik, focuses on raising finance for socially conscious businesses. Her charity, Ride to Shine, offers less privileged children sporting and educational opportunities that would otherwise be out of their reach.

Regent’s was the place I called home for four years. There is so much diversity here, which really helped me to understand people. I had the chance to interact with people from all over the world, from China, to America to Australia.

Makhdoom Fakhar Zaman was elected as Chairman of Pakistan’s Matiari District at the age of 25 – the youngest-ever district council chairman in the country’s history. His focus is on healthcare and education. Makhdoom wants the women in the District to receive a high level of education and to have completely equal rights and freedom. He would also like to introduce reverse-osmosis plants to the District, to provide everyone with access to pure drinking water.
Regent’s graduates go on to make their mark in many different industries and professions, and very often become trailblazers in their field.

Isabelle Sieb
BA (Hons) Screenwriting & Producing (2013)
Since graduating, Isabelle has been working as a director and was nominated for Best Drama at the BAFTA Children’s Awards 2019 for her work on Sky One’s The Athena. After working on this show, she was invited by BBC1 to direct the final three episodes of the critically acclaimed show Shetland. For Isabelle, Regent’s prepared her with the skills and resilience to break into this exciting and competitive industry.

Ilyes Ouali
BA (Hons) Fashion Design (2018)
Since graduating, Ilyes has set the fashion industry alight with his unique designs. As well as being featured in Vogue Arabia and attracting buyers from across the world, he also won the reality TV competition Fashion Star Arabia 2019. For Ilyes, the key to his success as a designer was his studies at Regent’s. The unlimited access he had to the University’s design studios enabled him to develop his own style, which he describes as a fusion of rich, Arabian culture and casual, western style.

What I learned from most during my time at Regent’s was their philosophy: you get as much out as you are willing to put in. We had the facilities and guidance available to us to experiment and reach our full potential as filmmakers.

Regent’s was one of the most important factors to push start my career. My first collection was actually created in the University’s basement studio with just scissors, paper and a load of music.

Sebastian is a publisher development manager for Facebook’s Audience Network, managing relationships with digital and mobile publishers across Europe, Africa and the Middle East. Working in mobile marketing and advertising after graduation, he worked at InMobi mobile ad network before landing his current role. His undergraduate studies taught him how to explore many subjects and apply his knowledge in different contexts.

‘Studying an American-style degree really helped broaden my horizons as an individual with a wide set of skills, preparing me for my career in a global organisation.’
We want to understand who you are and what your skills and interests may be – we are interested in your potential, as well as your prior achievements.

Please see the information on pages page 20-25 for typical entry requirements for our degree programmes. We also accept other equivalent qualifications as recommended by the National Academic Recognition Information Centre.

We review each application comprehensively and on its individual merit, considering all of your skills, interests and attributes.

Applicants for some undergraduate Film, Media & Performance or Fashion & Design programmes may be invited to attend an audition or interview, or submit a portfolio. An interview is also required for some postgraduate programmes.

Visa requirements: Students who require a Tier 4 (General) visa to study in the UK may be required to meet specific grade requirements and conditions of study as stipulated by UK Visas and Immigration. Please check their website for current information: www.gov.uk/tier-4-general-visa

Transfer of credits: If you have already participated in education at degree level, you may be able to transfer some of your credits towards one of our degree programmes. Please contact us for further information.

English language requirements: All our programmes are taught in English, and you will need to meet the requirements of your chosen programme. We will ask for evidence of your English language ability and assess whether you need to take an English language test, depending on your educational background.

At Regent’s we offer you a high level of personal attention, and this begins from the moment you apply to study with us.
How to apply

Regent’s has a rolling application process, so you can apply at any time. However, some programmes fill up quickly. To give yourself the best chance of being considered for your chosen programme, please apply as early as possible.

The application deadlines for September 2020 are:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Priority application:</th>
<th>Wednesday 15 January 2020</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Late application:</td>
<td>Wednesday 25 March 2020</td>

- You can apply directly to us through our website at regents.ac.uk/apply
- If you are applying for an undergraduate degree programme, you can also apply through UCAS (the Regent’s University London code is R18).
  www.ucas.com

Our independent status means that even if you have already made five choices via the UCAS system, you can still make a sixth application by applying directly to us.

You may also apply through the US Common Application system (if you apply this way, please do not also apply through UCAS or make a direct application.)

www.commonapp.org

You can expect to receive a decision on your application within 10 working days from when we receive your completed application and supporting documents.

If you still have to finish your education, or have yet to attend an interview, we will issue a conditional offer. If you have met all the conditions, we will send you an unconditional offer.

Funding your studies

Regent’s University London is an independent, not-for-profit institution. Our students pay the same fees, regardless of nationality, enabling us to provide the highest level of service and education.

Please see our website for information on students loans, scholarships and bursaries.
