

Our Phased Return to Regent's

Regent's is implementing a five-level, phased approach to our return to campus. The levels outline what the University will be able to facilitate or provide, subject to Government guidance. We will only proceed to the next phase of further activity if we are confident that doing so will not compromise the health and safety of our students, staff and visitors.

We are here

	LEVEL 5 UK in lockdown (until 30 April 2020)	LEVEL 4 Gradual easing of UK lockdown measures (May 2020 – January 2021)	LEVEL 3 Stage One return to campus (Anticipated from start of January 2021 Term)	LEVEL 2 Stage Two return to campus (During 2020/21 academic year)	LEVEL 1 Business as usual (Academic year 2021/22)
TEACHING & LEARNING	All online	All online, with enhanced digital offering available from start of Autumn 2020 Term	All teaching and learning available online, with some teaching of small groups or tutorials available on-site (if possible)	When safety can be guaranteed and in accordance with UK Government guidelines, some larger group teaching to resume on site	Classes as normal on site, alongside enhanced digital offering for flexible learning
RESIDENTIAL	Available to any student who cannot return home due to COVID-19	Available to any student who cannot return home due to COVID-19	Limited re-opening of Reid Hall for students who require it, with new policies to ensure safety	Transition to normal use of Reid Hall with limited catering, if viable within UK Government guidelines	Full service resumed in Reid Hall
CAMPUS SERVICES	Access to campus available for essential services, on request	Access to campus available for essential services, on request	Some library access and takeaway food available, in accordance with social distancing	Transition from limited to full access of campus services, if viable within UK Government guidelines	Full access to campus services
STUDENT SERVICES & STUDENT UNION	Provision for on-site emergency support maintained, with the remainder of services online	All online, with extra emphasis on support for mental health and financial hardship	Limited access to in-person student services, online provision maintained including virtual onboarding for new students unable to attend campus	Transition from limited to full access of student services, if viable within UK Government guidelines, whilst maintaining online provision	Full access to on-site student services/SU with extra online support capabilities
OFFICE WORK	All but essential staff working from home	From 3 August, staff who need to work from campus may return, subject to appropriate risk assessments	Staff who want to return to campus are allowed in accordance with UK Government guidance	Most staff can work on-site, with the option to continue working from home as appropriate and feasible	All staff can work on-site, with the option for increased working from home as appropriate and feasible