REGENT'S SUMMER FASHION PROGRAMME WITH INTERNSHIP

31 MAY TO 20 AUGUST 2021

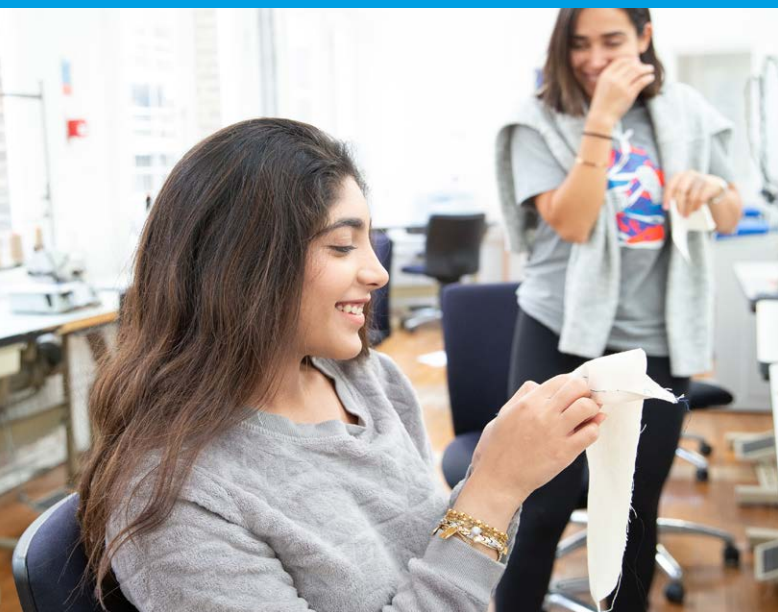
Stand out from the crowd with a summer internship placement in London, England. Full-time internships available in a range of fashion businesses, from small boutiques to multinational companies.

You will participate in a career development program and be matched individually to an internship approved by Regent's University London.

Just one in 10 students study abroad before graduating, and even fewer intern abroad.

OPPORTUNITIES IN

- Fashion Design
- Fashion Business
- Fashion Merchandising
- Fashion Marketing
- Styling
- Event Planning
- Product Development



PROGRAMME OVERVIEW

STAGE ONE: The first six weeks comprises a taught term, where you will study at the beautiful Regent's campus in the royal Regent's Park. You will take two fashion modules with industry-practitioner tutors while experiencing study trips to fashion and other venues in London. The two modules are worth 24 UK credits, equivalent to 6 US credits. For details of the modules available, visit regents.ac.uk/summer

STAGE TWO: A taught term with a six-week, credit-bearing Internship in central London. Students who successfully complete the Internship will be awarded 20 UK credits, equivalent to 5 US credits. The Internship involves work in industry (with a maximum of 35 hours per week), weekly face-to- face tutorials with a Regent's tutor and assessments: reflective log and a final report, which you will complete with support from your tutor.

INTERNSHIP EXAMPLES

LUXURY BRITISH DESIGNER This dynamic British design brand provides unique luxury tailoring for contemporary women. Their core product lines have gained recognition from the world's media and are now stocked internationally in the UK, USA, France and online with a bespoke service available in London. The selected intern will gain production experience by assisting the designers with alterations, sewing, pattern cutting, and fabric/source trimming.

HUMAN RESOURCES AND MERCHANDISING for a womenswear clothing label that embraces a global approach to fashion, with creative, contemporary silhouettes, vibrant prints, and complementary collections from new European designers. The intern will be involved in a variety of activities, including HR, retail, merchandising and business development. Educational backgrounds of interns can be diverse provided the individual is interested in learning and willing to engage with all staff and prepare.

FASHION BUYING, MERCHANDISING, STYLING AND EVENT PLANNING This showroom receives collections and creates campaigns for well-known brands. The intern will sell brands from the showroom to buyers and reach out to potential buyers to secure future partnerships with companies from all over the world. Other tasks may include coordinating casting calls, styling models, visual merchandising around the showroom, and organising fashion shows and related events. Those with confidence in their knowledge of the fashion industry and an outgoing personality will shine in this role.
