Be part of Regent's University London's global community

We are delighted to welcome students and staff from across the world to our campus each year. Regent's is proud to be one of the most international universities in the UK, with a commitment to enhancing international education that is embedded in our culture.

Our high-quality teaching complements a portfolio of degrees and courses where excellence, innovation and enterprise are the driving forces for success.

As a student studying abroad at Regent's, you'll enjoy a unique experience, working alongside our students with academic and personal support from all departments across the University. They bring their international knowledge to our classrooms and enhance the quality of our teaching.

At Regent's, we have a mission to 'develop tomorrow's global leaders.' Supporting student mobility is at the heart of what we do.

We look forward to welcoming you.

Dr Ahmed Masoud,
Director of International Partnerships,
Regent's University London

At Regent's, I met students and staff from around the globe, learnt about so many new cultures, and saw the beauty of London all around me every day as I walked to class. I met my best friends while at Regent's and still talk every week even though we're all around the world.

Kimberly Orndoff, USA

Study abroad at Regent's

At Regent's, you'll be part of one of the UK's most cosmopolitan educational communities, with students from over 140 countries.

Studying abroad offers more than an academic adventure – living and studying in another country is a great way to gain new perspectives, learn new skills and grow in confidence.

Make the most of your time here with excursions, tours of London and trips to other UK cities and landmarks. Explore further afield: London's excellent transport links put other European cities – from Paris to Amsterdam – on your doorstep.
