Life on campus

Our secure campus is set in a quiet, leafy park in the centre of London. Set in 11 acres of private garden, it's a safe respite, with gated access and 24/7 security.

Mixing with almost 3,000 international students on campus, you'll never be just another face in the crowd. You'll make international friends, learn about other cultures and build a global network for your future.

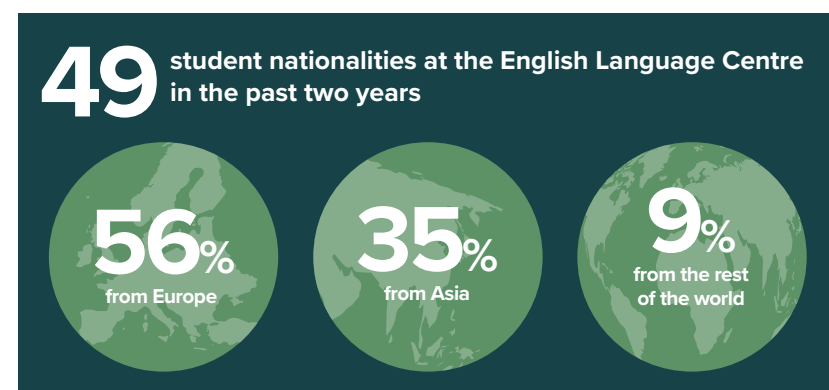

Access everything the University and campus has to offer.

- Coffee shops, restaurants and bars: plenty of choice for food and drink and places to meet friends
- Access the library and electronic resources
- Work in private study areas, IT suites and Mac labs
- Book private rooms for group work or presentations
- Support & Wellbeing services
- Fitness programme with yoga, pilates and other sports
- Student Union parties, sports, workshops and social events.

'I thought it would be best to join a diverse university in London with people from all over the world and teachers who will teach you accurate English. My experience was even better than I imagined.'

Hamid Karim Damani, Paraguay

Accommodation

No matter how long you study with us, we have a range of accommodation options for you.

Homestay accommodation

Experience a British way of life while you study. Private and homestay accommodation options are available throughout London, organised by experienced external providers. They are conveniently located and close to public transport. You can socialise and eat with your host, giving you the chance to practise your English outside the classroom. Hosts are selected for their friendliness and homes must meet British Council and English UK standards.

- Single furnished rooms with bed, desk, chair and storage
- Shared bathroom facilities
- Access to main living areas
- Within normal commuting distance of central London
- Two weeks minimum stay
- Never more than 4 students sharing one home
- Continental breakfast and evening meal included

Standard single room Zone 2	£279.00 per week *
Standard single room Zone 3	£259.00 per week*
Standard single room Zone 4&5	£239.00 per week*

To be matched with the right host, please book well in advance. Let us know of any requirements (for example, dietary/medical, whether you smoke, pet allergies) by completing the booking form.

*For anyone aged under 18, a supplement of £15.00 per person per week will be added to cover additional responsibility and DBS check. Under 18s may only be accommodated on half board basis (breakfast and dinner).

On-campus accommodation during the Summer

Reid Hall is located on our campus in Regent's Park overlooking the surrounding gardens. Living on campus allows you to relax and socialise, while being just moments away from the classroom and campus facilities.

Each floor has three communal bathrooms (with around five students per bathroom) and, while the rooms include meal credit to be used in the University's range of dining outlets, there is also a pantry on each floor, providing you with access to a microwave, kettle and sink.

English Language Centre – Summer accommodation prices
Reid Hall twin	£350 a week*

*Prices are per person, per week and include £90 of meal credit.

- Terms and condition may apply for cancellations and changes. Extra fees may apply. Please contact us for further information at ELC@regents.ac.uk
- Rates are valid until 31 December 2023, but are subject to change.

We offer an introductory interview to identify your language level.

Pre-sessional Course

Monday – Thursday 09:15-12:30 and 13:30-15:00
and Friday 09:15-12:30
21 hours per week

This course is designed for students who currently hold an offer for a degree programme at Regent's University London. The course is available at various lengths, depending on the student's level of English and the entry requirements of their chosen degree programme.

At the initial stage of the course students attend Intensive English classes and in the last 12 weeks, the course consists of General English in the mornings with Academic English and REPT (Regent's English Proficiency Test) exam preparation in the afternoons.

Students take two mock exams throughout the course and the final exam in the last week. Upon successful completion, students can progress directly to their chosen degree programme at Regent's, provided they have met the entry requirements.

IELTS

Exam preparation

Hundreds of students have chosen us because of our excellent track record and expert teachers who specialise in IELTS preparation. We will show you simple yet powerful ways to score a higher band.

General English plus IELTS

Monday to Thursday 09:15 – 15:00

Friday 09:15 – 12:30

21 hours per week

This course is designed to develop the English language skills and exam techniques that you need to be successful in your IELTS exam.

General English lessons in the mornings will improve your confidence and boost your fluency when communicating in English.

Our experienced teachers will focus on improving your speaking, writing, listening and reading skills while covering various grammar structures, formal and informal vocabulary and pronunciation.

In the afternoons you'll learn the exam techniques, strategies and how to complete reading, listening, speaking and writing tasks successfully.

The minimum level of English proficiency required is Intermediate. If you are aiming for a band 7 or higher you should ideally be at Upper Intermediate level (B2/B2+).

Summer

English Plus

Combine General English classes in the mornings with two afternoon activities each week, chosen from Business and Employability Skills workshop or Sightseeing in London.

Summer English Plus

Monday to Friday 9:15 – 12:30, plus two afternoon workshops

15 hours per week

■ General English

The General English course in the mornings covers all language skills (reading, writing, listening, speaking) as well as grammar, vocabulary and pronunciation.

The course will help to boost your confidence and improve your fluency when speaking English.

Classes are interactive, engaging and flexible, with a clear focus on meaningful and developmental activities which promote language learning in the context of the classroom and beyond – tailored to your individual strengths, weaknesses and needs.

■ Business and Employability Skills

(13:30 – 15:00 twice a week)

These sessions will help you to develop the skills needed to communicate effectively and confidently in the modern workplace. They are ideal for individuals who are at an early stage in their career, preparing for a career change or aiming to find a job in an English-speaking workplace. Workshops cover how to succeed with job applications and interviews, effective workplace communication and vocabulary and grammar for business situations.

■ Sightseeing in London

(13:30 – 16:30 twice a week)

Our tours and trips will enable you to explore both famous sights and hidden gems in London. You'll learn about British culture, customs, traditions and history while practising speaking English with your fellow students. This option will give you a perfect balance of academic, cultural and social experience.

Duration	Fees (without accommodation)
2-10 weeks	£380 per week + £30 materials fee

Registration fee: £60

Start dates: 2023
26 June	2 - 9 weeks
3 July	2 - 8 weeks
10 July	2 - 7 weeks
17 July	2 - 6 weeks
24 July	2 - 5 weeks
31 July	2 - 4 weeks
7 August	2 - 3 weeks
14 August	2 weeks

Students on courses of four weeks or longer can select to follow more than one afternoon option. All students take a placement test and are placed in a General English class according to their level of English – minimum Pre-Intermediate (A2). On-campus accommodation is available.

Private & group bookings

Private tuition

One-to-one tuition is available both on campus and online. Classes are tailored to your specific needs and your level of English. Depending on your goals, we can offer General English, Business English, Academic English or IELTS exam preparation.

We can focus on developing your speaking and any other skills: reading, writing, listening, grammar and pronunciation. Our experienced and qualified teachers will help you identify and work on your weaknesses, develop fluency, accuracy and gain confidence in speaking English.

If you would like to study together with a friend whose level of English and needs are similar to yours, you can choose 2:1 tuition.

1:1 (1 student + 1 teacher)
Tuition	Fees
1 trial session (90 mins)	£130
10 hours	£800

2:1 (2 students + 1 teacher)
Tuition	Fees
1 trial session (90 mins)	£160
10 hours	£1000

Registration fee: £60

Group bookings

The following information is suitable for Regent's representatives/agents who work with groups, or an English language teacher who wants to bring students to study English in London.

Group bookings are:

- Open or closed
- For groups of 10 or more
- For students aged 16 or over

If you have any questions, or would simply like to chat through your options, please get in touch via email elcbookings@regents.ac.uk

How you'll learn

We offer a practical approach to teaching with the chance to practise your language skills on the ground in one of the world's most exciting capital cities.

A personal education

Receive a personal welcome from either our Head of ELC, Monika Wierzanska-Villar, or one of your future English teachers, who will talk to you about your learning goals and how you can make the most out of your time at Regent's.

Learn in a supportive, international environment where staff and students get to know each other by name – get the personal attention needed to progress quickly.

Induction on day 1

Your course will start with an induction, where we show you around campus and give you information about your lessons and your schedule. We will explain what support, facilities and activities are available to you and what you should do if you have a question or problem. We will also ensure you have access to your Regent's IT account. The induction is compulsory to all new students and there are no lessons on this day – they will start at 09:15 the following day.

Practical learning

Practise your English language skills in class, around campus and throughout London.

Classes are fun and engaging, with a focus on task-based activities that promote critical thinking, problem-solving and an understanding of British culture.

Learning is always varied – put your skills into practice with mini tests, practise presentation skills, write professional and personal emails and regularly talk with classmates.

New opportunities

- Access everything the University has to offer, from sweeping lawns to breakout study areas, a library, IT suites, cafes and bars
- A taste of student life – extra-curricular activities including a Conversation Club and mix with students across all degrees and nationalities
- Receive personal support from our student wellbeing team and book one-to-one sessions with friendly advisors – just like a full-time student
- Tailored induction programme built specifically for our English students
- Receive Associate Alumni status when you complete a course of 10+ weeks – giving you access to discounts, clubs, events and volunteering opportunities.

'Not only have I improved my formal English, but I have also learnt about everyday native expressions. The teachers tailor lessons to improve our weak points, which was very helpful.'

Kanako Abe, Japan

'My course has really improved my English skills and has made me more confident to communicate in English, so I can participate in activities and social clubs outside of the university.'

Shunnosuke Yoshizawa, Japan
